

INDUSTRY FACTS

|   |                                   |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| Number of Wineries in 2008  | 395                               |
| Number of Vinifera Vineyards in 2008(includes Estate Vineyards associated with wineries) | 856                               |
| Planted Vinifera Acreage in 2008  | 19,300 / 7,810 (ha)               |
| Top 5 Varieties:  |                                   |
| Pinot noir  | 11,210 planted acres / 4,537 (ha) |
| Pinot gris  | 2,736 planted acres / 1,107 (ha)  |
| Chardonnay  | 1,008 planted acres / 408 (ha)    |
| Reisling  | 777 planted acres / 314 (ha)      |
| Cabernet Sauvignon  | 627 planted acres / 254 (ha)      |
| Harvested Acreage in 2008   | 14,900 / 6030 (ha)                |
| 2008 Total Production   | 34,700 tons                       |
| Production by Variety:  |                                   |
| Pinot noir  | 17,571 tons                       |
| Pinot gris  | 5,894 tons                        |
| Chardonnay  | 1,630 tons                        |
| Riesling  | 2,633 tons                        |
| Cabernet Sauvignon  | 1,177 tons                        |
| U.S. Ranking for Number of Wineries   | 3rd                               |
| Oregon Wine Sales in 2008   | 1,748,282 cases                   |

\* Information from the 2008 Oregon Vineyard and Winery Report, National Agricultural Statistics Service, Oregon Field Office.*